

CONNOR ADAMSICK – UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

Adamsick is a junior on the Husker Men's Gymnastics Team. Adamsick distinguished himself as a leader since the moment he arrived at Nebraska. He has received many awards to recognize his academic achievements and dedication to community service. Adamsick was a recipient of the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team (2015, 2016) and Nebraska Student-Athlete HERO Leadership Award (2015). Adamsick is a two-time Academic All-Big Ten (2015, 2016) and a part of the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Fall 2013, 2015; Spring 2015, 2016). He was elected as Vice President of the 2015-2016 Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. Additional awards of distinction include Second-Team CGA All-American Scholar-Athlete (2016) and the Nebraska Men's Gymnastics Hardest Worker Award (2016).

Adamsick is currently carrying a 3.131 grade point average. He is pursuing a Civil Engineering degree.

SARAH SHAW – TEXAS A&M AGGIES

Shaw is a senior on the Aggies Women's Soccer Team. Shaw was named to the 2015 SEC Soccer Community Service Team in recognition of her spirit of giving. With over 750 hours logged as a volunteer at the Community Enrichment Center's Food Pantry and a summer spent as a community ministries intern, Shaw has sorted donated goods, conducted extensive research covering over a dozen food pantries in the Dallas-Ft. Worth metroplex, and aided in the improvement of distribution procedures, layout efficiency, and enhanced inventory practices. In addition to her work at the food pantry, Shaw has been a member of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) and served on the executive team. Perhaps the most impactful act of service Shaw has provided has been through her mission work in Nepal. Through her work with Build International Ministries, she co-founded a soccer club team for underprivileged children referred to as "Sarah's Soccer Club." She is an active volunteer at the Brazos Valley Food Bank and is also assisting with local properties in need of repair, volunteering in the local World's Changing Charities with "African Moons" helping to collect and donate books and sports equipment for children in Tanzania. Finally, with her soccer teammates, she has served as one of the Aggies' ambassadors on visits to the Texas Children's Hospital, participated in numerous youth soccer clinics in the Bryan-College Station area, and helped to raise money and collect canned goods as part of SAAC's Aggies CAN initiative.

Shaw is seeking a degree in Management with a minor in Economics, and her emphasis is in Nonprofit Management. She is carrying a 3.684 grade point average.